

GTreasury Opens London Office to Support EMEA Expansion

September 07, 2017 10:00 AM Eastern Daylight Time

CHICAGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--GTreasury announced today the opening of their West End, London office at 1 Neal Street. This move gives GTreasury both an expanded presence in Europe for the servicing of its new and existing treasury management customers and a foundation for greater support, service and future growth.

The London based GTreasury team will include new additions such as Terry Beadle, as Global Head of Corporate Development, and Christopher Seaman, as EMEA Managing Director.

Mr. Beadle was the global leader of Bloomberg's treasury management team for three years and is a former managing director of Wall Street Systems. Mr. Seaman was with Bloomberg since 2007, and was most recently in charge of global sales of its corporate treasury management solutions.

"GTreasury is experiencing strong growth and continues to be an influential global leader in the liquidity management and payments arena. Adding a London office and strong management enhances our support for EMEA customers, increases our access to global talent and local partners, and will help us drive business opportunities worldwide," said Orazio Pater founder of GTreasury.

About GTreasury

Originated in 1986, GTreasury is the global leader of treasury management solutions for organizations spanning the world. GTreasury's solution illuminates a treasury's liquidity by centralizing all incoming and outgoing banking activities, along with tracking all financial instrument activities. This gives GTreasury practitioners real-time insight and access into their global liquidity. GTreasury is the only company that offers both an installed and a SaaS solution. Our modular platform and infrastructure allow any size treasury operation the ability to customize a solution that is best suited to their needs.
